The Wolfeboro Community Bandstand is located in Cate Park along the shores of Lake Winnepesaukee adjacent to the Wolfeboro public town docks. The bandstand has not only become a visual symbol of our town, but also a venue for town events. Saturday evenings in the summer translate into music under the stars. So bring a lawn chair or blanket and enjoy the evening with family and friends.

*If concerts are canceled because of rain, notification will be made using signs at the bandstand and postings on Facebook or wolfeborobandstand.org

All bandstand concerts are free and open to the public. Funding for concerts comes largely from individuals. There are 3 ways to donate: contribute cash to the buckets available during the concert intermission, mail a check made payable to Friends of the Wolfeboro Community Bandstand, or by scanning the QR code below for an online donation. All donations are tax deductible (Federal EIN number is 02-0479353).

Our all-volunteer non-profit organization deeply appreciates your generosity as we count on your donation to keep our concerts going now, and in the future as well as helping to maintain our town treasure, the Wolfeboro Community Bandstand.

Love From Liverpool July 5

Not a look alike group but a sound alike band representing that timeless era when those mop-top boys crossed the pond from Liverpool and invaded the USA with a brand new sound. Come down and dance, clap and sing along because you know all of the lyrics. Whether you are 8 or 88, this custom built tribute band is sure to put a smile on your face!

Eric Grant Band July 12

The Gilford, New Hampshire based Eric Grant Band has taken the music scene by storm, playing in front of thousands of fans in northern New England since their inception in 2009. They have been featured as a supporting act for national headliners such as Jason Aldean, Tim McGraw, Blake Shelton, Trace Adkins, Toby Keith, Eric Church, Lady Antebellum, and Keith Urban.

Compaq Big Band July 19

The Compaq Big Band has kept New England swingin' since 1975, with a big band repertoire that begins with honoring the classics from the 30s and 40s as performed by the bands of Glenn Miller, Artie Shaw, Tommy Dorsey, Count Basie, Duke Ellington, and other greats. We balance instrumental charts and horn features with vocal numbers such as those popularized by Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Bobby Darin, Frankie Randall, Nancy Wilson, Diane Schuur, and many more. Come check out the big band sound of 14 horns, a cookin' rhythm section and great vocalists and instrumental solos in Cate Park!

Windham Community Band July 26

The Windham Community Band consists of about 80 total members and is a volunteer, non-profit organization serving musicians and the public from Windham and surrounding communities. Musicians of all ages are welcome to join. windhamcommunitybands.org

Jimmy And The Jesters August 2

Jimmy & The Jesters is a 4 piece band playing Rock & Roll songs from the 50s, 60s and 70s. They also sprinkle in some Classic Country songs from the same era. No website but join the group on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1509845545945773>

High Range August 9

Bluegrass, Folk, Roots Band
High Range highlights original music with a mix of covers on guitar, upright bass, mandolin, fiddle, banjo and drums. Their songs, singing and harmonies bring you the soul of working-class New Hampshire. highrangeband.com

Michael Vincent Band August 16

The Michael Vincent Band is a three-piece blues band from central New England that has been touring and playing music together for over 13 years. The MVB was born and raised on blues in one of the most unlikely places: New Hampshire. Catch one of the best shows you've seen in years, and get a taste of what's to come on the blues front!

Ball In The House August 23

Ball in the House is an R&B/soul/pop a cappella group based out of their hometown of Boston, MA. With their extensive tour schedule (approx. 150 shows a year), Ball in the House has performed all over the country at theaters, clubs, schools, and festivals. They have performed with such artists as The Beach Boys, Fantasia, The Jonas Brothers, Gladys Knight, Lionel Richie, Jessica Simpson, Blondie, The Temptations, Smokey Robinson, KC & The Sunshine Band, and numerous others. The Boston Globe says of the group, "Ball in the House has everything you would expect to find in a successful pop/R&B band... the one thing it doesn't have is instruments."

Soggy Po' Boys August 30

The Soggy Po Boys, native to New England, have quickly become an institution. They are spreading the good news of New Orleans music across the north-east and beyond, playing at concert halls and street corners; music festivals and burlesque festivals; bars and libraries; wherever the party requires. Part of the beauty of New Orleans music is that it's celebrated and appreciated wherever it goes, from the street to the theater.
